Port Offering Free Public Bus Tour

RICHLAND, Wash. – Port of Benton is hosting a free bus tour of the port's district for the community on Wednesday, September 30, beginning at 8 a.m.

The bus will depart from the port's main office at 3250 Port of Benton Blvd. in Richland. Light snacks and water will be provided.

The tour will showcase the port's industrial facilities and rail network, including updates on port-wide capital projects.

Additionally, attendees will see the port's Richland Airport and Prosser Airport, and locations in Prosser, such as Vintners Village, Prosser Wine & Food Park, Clore Center and a stop at Chukar Cherries.

The tour will conclude back at the port office, with the option to tour the USS Triton.

Space is limited, and registration is required. Register by September 23 at portofbenton.com/tour.
